

THE NEW YORKER

September 26, 2005

DEITCH PROJECTS

18 Wooster St. (212-343-7300)—Sept. 23-24: The much talked about, ever-shifting neo-cabaret performance troupe the Citizens Band (its members range from well-known singers and actors to obscure trapeze artists and even the odd marketing executive) premieres “The Trepanning Opera,” a large-scale piece about “the wonders and horrors of the human body.”